St. Paul's Library Acquisitions Following Our Truth and Reconciliation Program

By Elayne Lockhart

In the spring of 2016 St. Paul's hosted a five-week study series regarding the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) and the relationship of the Anglican Church of Canada to the Indigenous Peoples of Canada (First Nations, Inuit, and Métis). Subsequently a special shelf was set up in our library where relevant books have been donated by participants in the program. In particular Esther Wesley, a member of St. Paul's and the coordinator of the Anglican Fund for Healing and Reconciliation, donated a large number of books.

Our library now includes a complete copy of the TRC report as well as a wide range of subjects related to Indigenous history in Canada. There are also study guide resources as well as novels by current Indigenous writers.

A sampling of the collection includes: Speaking My Truth, Reflections on Reconciliation and Residential Schools from the Aboriginal Healing Foundation; In Peace and Friendship, a New Relationship with Aboriginal Peoples from Kairos; Medicine Walk by Richard Wagamese; Wenjack by Joseph Boyden; The Comeback by John Rolston Saul; and Children of the Broken Treaty by Charlie Angus.

The library is open on Sundays and the books are available to be signed out. Our library volunteers, Peggy Abbott and Rex Williams, are able to help interested readers select appropriate reading to suit their interests and needs. Please take advantage of this resource.

National Aboriginal Day of Prayer

Creator God, from you every family in heaven and earth takes its name. You have rooted and grounded us in your covenant love and empowered us by your Spirit to speak the truth in love, and to walk in your way towards justice and wholeness. Mercifully grant that your people, journeying together in partnership, may be strengthened and guided to help one another to grow into the full stature of Christ, who is our light and our life. Amen.

Prayer List

July 2 - This week we pray for:

All victims of circumstances beyond their control, so that all may live in peace. Those in leadership, regardless of their position, to be faithful in service and exercise wisdom and justice in their role. Everyone gathered today to worship in the Anglican Diocese of Huron in Southwestern Ontario.

Those serving in our Youth Ministry. The following members of our community: Matt, Kate, Alice, Henry, Melanie, Paul, Peter, Madeleine, Araminta, Shirley.

Prayer for Canada Day Weekend

Eternal God, whose reign has no bounds and whose care endures throughout time, hear our prayers for our country on this 150th Anniversary of our Confederation. Guide, strengthen and uphold all who are elected or appointed to govern and lead. Grant respect for human life, and dignity to every citizen. May justice flourish and all people live in unity and peace. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Flowers Today

The flowers in the Church are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Andre-Michel Clouthier and Carole London given by Keith McKewen.
